

Cubis: The New Benchmark for Laboratory Balances

The first series of laboratory balances that feature a completely modular design. The Cubis series of balances offer three different display and draft shield alternatives. All balances are user-configurable and customizable for every application.

Visit www.sartorius.com/cubis to view the introductory video and configure a balance to fit your individual needs.

For discounted introductory pricing on all models, contact Precision Weighing at (919) 678-0077. We will help you design a solution for any application.